NEW YORK

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON HUMAN SETTLEMENTS on the work of its fifteenth session 25 April-1 May 1995

Corrigendum

The text of the resolution should read

The Commission on Human Settlements,

Recalling resolutions of the General Assembly on countries with economies in transition,

Recalling, in particular, General Assembly resolution 49/106 of 19 December 1994, in which the Assembly invited the United Nations system to continue its support for the efforts of countries with economies in transition as they transform their economies and integrate them in the world economy,

Reaffirming that the full integration of countries with economies in transition as well as all other countries into the world economy is essential to sustainable development,

Recognizing the need for promotion of reforms in housing and urban management and development in countries with economies in transition,

Taking note of the progress achieved so far in assisting countries with economies in transition with their human settlements problems,

1. Requests the Executive Director of the United Nations Centre for Human Settlements (Habitat) to continue to provide policy advice and technical assistance to countries with economies in transition, tailored to each country's respective economic and social problems, in close cooperation with the Economic Commission for Europe, in the field of housing and human settlements;

2. Invites the Executive Director, within available resources, to consider proposals for inclusion in the work programme of the United Nations Centre for Human Settlements (Habitat) for the biennium 1996-1997 of subsections specifically reflecting the problems and needs of countries with economies in transition;
